

Your great, great-grandparents, born in Belgium & grandparents of my mother } Henry Gerhardt 1794-1872 } Caroline Genolin Gerhardt 1796-1878 are buried in the "City of London & Tower Hamlet Cemetery" } No. 6166 (copied from small photograph)

The Roman C. Heboom and Caroline Marsily were married in London Church of St. Dunstan West Sept 7th, 1880 (copied from marriage licence)

III Descendants of I are Mabel Gerhardt Wheeler (called Popay) married to Claude Gallowsy Wheeler - 81 Caversham Avenue
 Palmer's Green
 London N. 13
PAL-6790

They have two married daughters, 4 little grandchildren -
One daughter lives in Wales

IV William Gerhardt - a cousin, is prominent writer, and broadcasts on the British radio - III will know his address 106 742 1000 W / Jan 4878

V Charles Gerhardt - brother of III wife, Renee, & 2 young sons (family home) + 8 Cranley Gardens
 Palmer's Green
 London N. 13
PAL-5126

VI In Paris In. at name Michel Broterol (né Françoise Hubarle
& Rue des Marronniers
Paris 16^e

Françoise is the granddaughter of aged La Baronne de Poliniere, my father's 1st cousin, living at 16 rue Thibert
Grenoble
France

VII Mrs Henriette Dubarle, widowed daughter of La Baronne, lives also at 16 rue Thibert - Grenoble France - Both reduced in wealth - The Poliniere Castle in Grenoble is now conducted as a boarding house for American students at Grenoble University by another daughter.

VIII Leah Eldred Marsily (who gave mother those English spoons which you must have some day) is buried in the Marsily Mausoleum at Spa a watering place in Belgium. She owned property there.

IX If still living in Brussels, there is a retired Belgian Colonel named William Marsily. He is past 70 years of age - if alive